

GOING FAST. This photograph was taken during practice at the bike races in the Velodrome, Point Breeze Park. On the bicycle is Fitzsimmons, a well-known rider. He is being motorcycle paced by Schlee, his racing partner.

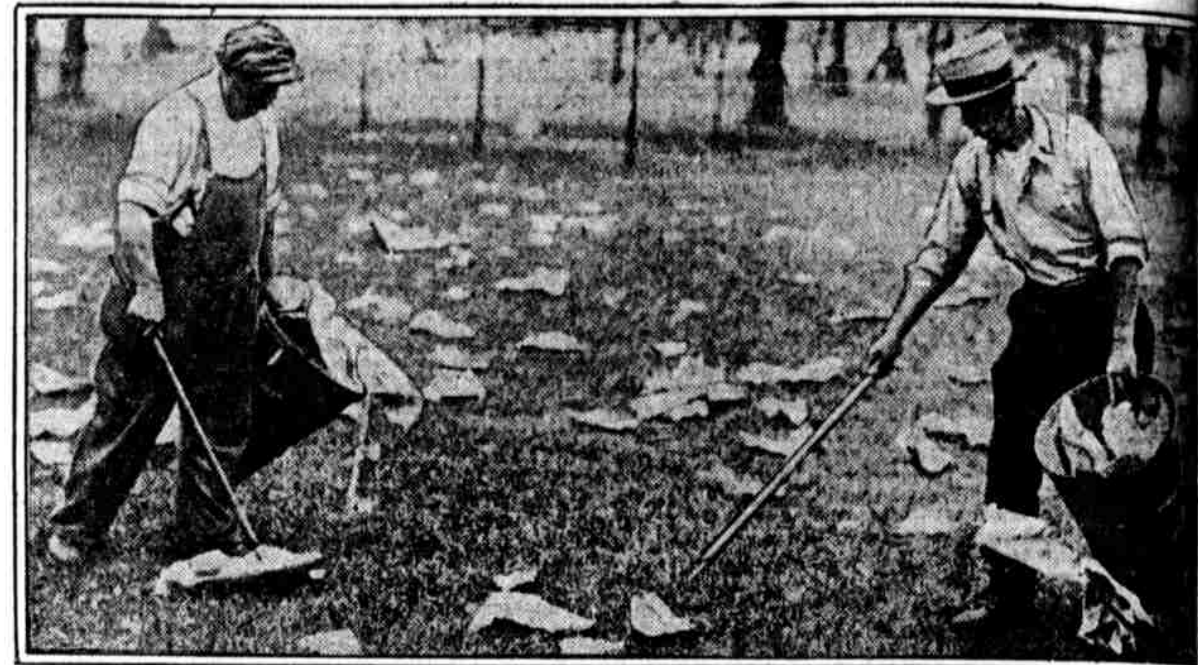

KING ALFONSO of Spain leaving his London hotel for the Ascot races.

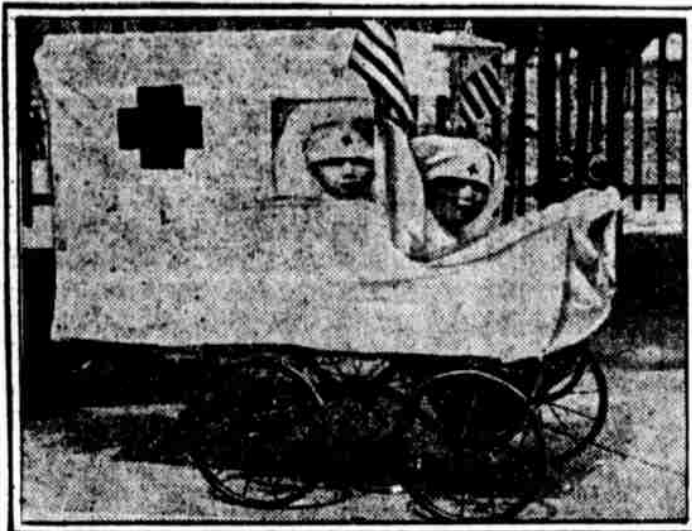

IN THE SECOND GAME. Stoddard, of the American polo team, just before he sent the ball for a count in the international polo contest.

THE CIRCLE TO GO. To improve traffic conditions at Broad street and the Boulevard, this decorative spot will be removed, according to plans of the Highway Department.

PICNICKERS CARELESS. Hunting Park was in a very dirty condition following the celebrations of July Fourth. Tons of paper, tin cans and boxes were left on the grass.

PRIZE WINNERS. Dottie and Betty Harris, of 1236 South Fifty-first street, had the prettiest patriotic coach at the Kingessing Playground.

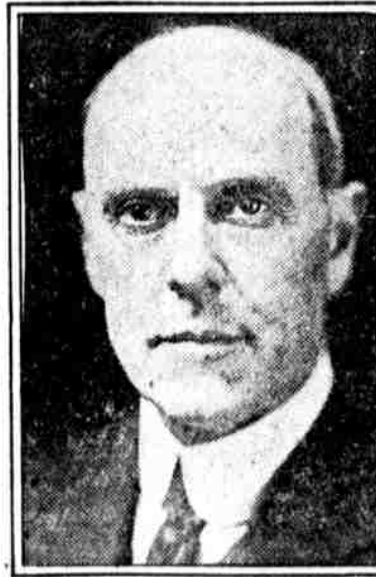

BOYS IN GOLF TOURNAMENT. Eighty-one youthful golfers started in the junior golf championship of Philadelphia on the Philmont Country Club course. Donald Cresswell won the qualifying medal. From left to right are Edwin Rosenthal, caught in action; W. B. McCullough, getting his golf balls ready, and Lee Bowers.

THE ASCOT CLASSIC. The horses are shown as they pass the finishing point in the Ascot Gold Cup event. Periosteus, with F. Bullock up, won the event. British society filled the main stand.

WATERMELON FOR LUNCH. Mingled with the hundreds that played in Hunting Park yesterday were members of the A. J. Z. Club, Third and Diamond streets. Baseball, running events and good things to eat took up most of their time. In the watermelon group are (left to right): Dorothy Austin, Eleanor McKeane, Marie Foertsch, Mary Gallagher and Helen Barry. Barbara Demling did the slicing.

DR. WM. A. KINNAN, of Michigan, the new first Assistant Commissioner of Patents.

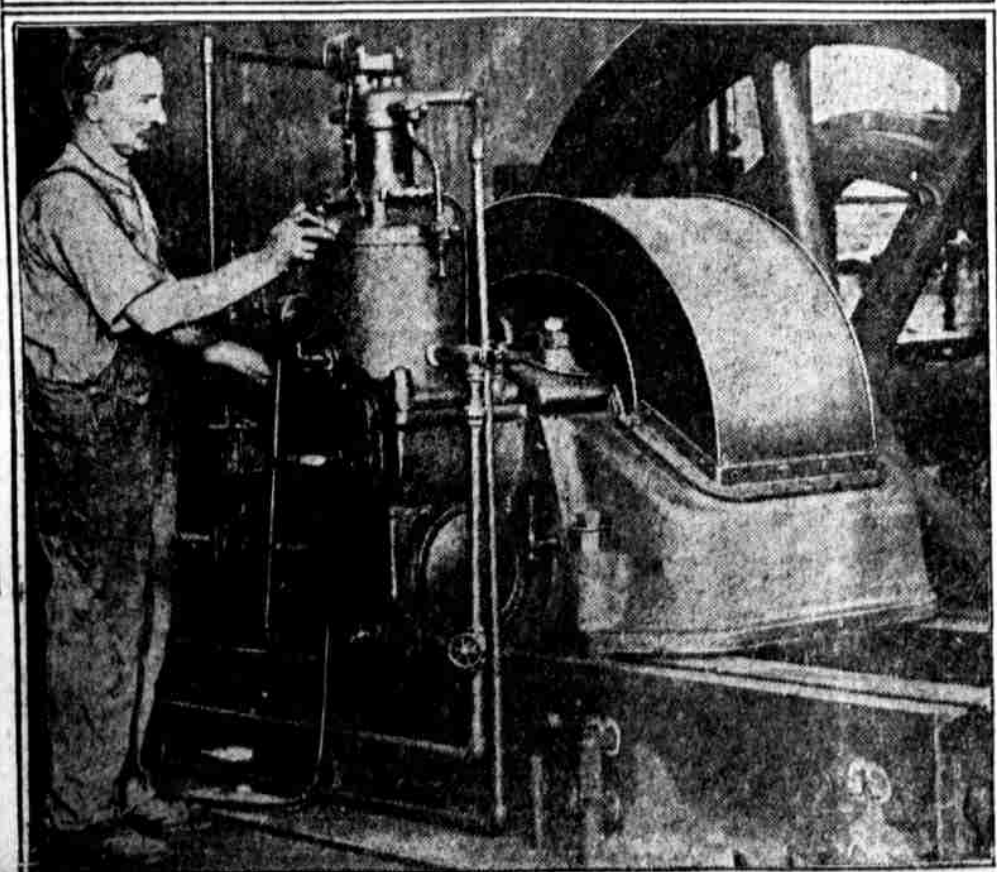

HERBERT YOUNG, Washington baseball team's mascot, is proud of baseball which bears President Harding's signature.

DOWN AT CLEMENTON. Elaine Reinmiller, of this city, with her mother close by, at the New Jersey lakeside, with lots of sand.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

LUDWIG BARTSCH, 4540 North Howard street, testing a fifty-horsepower crude-oil engine in the mill of the Otto Engine Co., Thirty-third and Walnut streets. Several days are used in complete testing and adjusting.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER. Mrs. Vincent Brennan, wife of Congressman Brennan, (Michigan), taking a live interest in Washington's social doings.

MAIL!

PETER KANE, of 1230 Wolf street, has served thirty-four years in the mail service. Ninth to Tenth, Market to Arch street.

IN HIS SHIRT SLEEVES. Reserve patrolmen of Philadelphia have discarded their coats for warm weather.

HOME-RUN QUEEN. Miss Stella Fries, second baseman for the New York Bloomer Girls' team, the real heavy clouter of the team.